LEAVITT BLANKED 48-0 BY TELSTAR GRIDDERS

Doug Brooks and Levi Brown scored a pair of touchdowns each as Telstar High clobbered host Leavitt High, 48-0, in Mountain Valley Conference football Saturday afternoon.

The Rebels improved its record to 4-1 while the Hornets were stung with their fifth straight setback.

Brooks tallied both first period scores first on a 35-yard scoop and the second on a 10-yard run. Paul Farrar was five-for-five on points after in the first half.

Brown scored on runs of seven and four yards around a 22-yard scamper by Mike Dunn as Telstar added three touchdowns in the second period.

Peter Bean tallied in the third period on a 43-yard run and then kicked the conversion point.

Farrar ended the scoring with a 22-yard run in the final chapter but Brooks' rush for the extra points was stopped.

The winners picked up 457 yards rushing and their only pass attempt was incomplete.

Brown, a senior, picked up 127 yards in 13 carries and it was the first time he has gone over the 100 yard mark in the game. Farrar added 91 yards in 10 carries.

Telstar journeys to Madison this Saturday to meet the undefeated conference leaders in a 1:30 set-to.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

A revision of the voting list shows we have 1,539 people registered to vote. This year, many names were deleted. A new law provides we may take names off if a person has changed his mailing address. This was very helpful as in prior years we had to notify these people by certified mail. Under the new law if the Postmaster tells us of a change we simply omit the name. If a voter finds he has been taken off the list and wants to continue voting here, he may do so by notifying us and state the reason why he feels he should be allowed to remain on the list. If just cause can be given we will reinstate his name.

DR. CROSBY, SUMMER RESIDENT OF SUNDAY RIVER, HAS BOOK PUBLISHED

Dr. Ruth Crosby, a summer resident of Bethel in the Sunday River area for most of her life, is the author of a book recently published by the Christopher Publishing House of North Quincy, Mass.

This book "From an Old Leather Trunk," is presented as a trilogy, carrying a New England family through five generations. It starts with the life of Samuel Rugg, a "Tory Patriot" of Lancaster, Mass., in the early 19th century and ends with the life-long account of his great granddaughter, Daisy Conant Crosby, the author's mother, who lived until 1968, her 96th year.

HEALTH COUNCIL DISCUSSES HEALTH CLINIC LAST WEEK

The Bethel Health and Service Council met on Tuesday evening, Oct. 1, at the Bethel Savings Bank Community Room. The large group in attendance consisted of both Council members and interested citizens. All received handouts describing the Bucksport Health Center, the duties and qualifications of a Physician's Assistant, and a plea for individual help in volunteer work to set up a Health Clinic for Bethel. All the information handed out refers to the type of program the Council hopes to offer in Bethel.

Health Council President John Laban, provided detailed information on the background work, research and visitations that have preceded the Trustees' decision on the type of building and set-up that they have recommended for the Council's approval. Mr. Laban stated that invaluable aid and information had come to the Council via Tri-County Health Council, Regional Medical Planning, and the Stephens Memorial Hospital. George Noll has drawn up a preliminary architectural plan of the proposed clinic building, but as yet a site has not been chosen. It was suggested, at the meeting, that the Council might petition the Town for a parcel of property at the airport. This would have to be done through an article in the Town Warrant.

Mr. Laban told the people attending that the Clinic would be staffed by professionals and paraprofessionals, this being the best continued on Page Eight

BOAT LAUNCHING FACILITIES PROVIDED AT LAKE CHRISTOPHER/MOOSE POND

Through the efforts and assistance of the State Bureau of Parks and Recreation more people in Western Maine will be able to enjoy boating on Christopher Lake and Moose Pond in the future. The Bureau has participated in the construction of new boat launching facilities providing easy public access to both lakes this past summer.

Both sites include hard surface parking lots to accommodate five or six cars and boat trailers and hard surface launching ramps.

The Christopher Lake site, near the village of Bryant Pond, is state-owned and maintained and was requested by townspeople and area fish and game clubs.

The new launching facility on Moose Pond in the town of Woodstock is owned and operated by the town. This site was built with funds available to municipalities for the construction and maintenance of boat facilities through the Bureau of Parks and Recreation's grants-in-aid program.

S. A. D. 44 BOARD EXTENDS AD HOC LIFE—NAMES HOOP COACH AT MONDAY MEETING

A regular session of the board of directors of MSAD #44 was held at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening, Oct. 7.

William Cousins, Bethel, chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee for Educational Planning, SAD #44, gave a cursory report of the committee's work to date. He said most of the work of his group had concerned discussion of the District's physical facilities up to this time with little study being made of curriculum. As the committee's authority had expired on Sept. 30, Mr. Cousins requested an open-end further extension of time. The board authorized an extension of committee life, terminating Sept. 30, 1975.

Supt. Basil Kinney reported that over $24,202 of unbudgeted unexpected expenses had already entered the financial picture of fiscal year 1975. Included in these are the cost of the Engelhardt survey for the Ad Hoc Committee, repairs of drainage at the Telstar student parking lot, repair of the Telstar gym floor, and renovations at the Telstar sewage treatment facility.

Mr. Kinney also read a rather lengthy list of recommendations of the insurance underwriter concerning district-owned property. The board voted to request the State Fire Marshal to conduct a survey of the SAD 44 schools, review the recommendations of the underwriters, and provide the district with a statement, listing all hazards needing correction to bring SAD 44 in compliance with Federal and State safety and health laws.

The board approved Dr. John Young of Bethel as school physician of SAD 44 for the current academic year.

A transportation proposal that would expand transportation for activities on non-school days was defeated. An earlier attempt to refer it to the transportation committee for refinement and clarification was also not successful.

It was brought out during the extended discussion of the transportation issue that there was thought to be a need to expand non-school day activities transportation and to provide more transportation for non-athletic school activities. The suggestion was made that it be considered during formulative discussion of the 1976 fiscal year budget.

Jeff Norris of Dixfield was approved as boys' varsity basketball coach at Telstar for the current school year. Mr. Norris, while he has no secondary school coaching experience, has worked as a coach in a youth basketball program, and has competed as a player in the semi-pro ranks. The Telstar varsity boys' post has been posted for several months and no certified member of the SAD 44 staff has been interested.

The resignation of Mrs. Patricia Ormrod, music teacher of SAD 44, for personal reasons, effective Dec. 31, 1974, was accepted.

Mrs. Mary Lou Fiske of Bethel was approved as substitute District nurse during the absence of Mrs. Suzanne Bartlett to complete courses authorized by the SAD 44 board at the Maine Medical Center.

A request by Paul Vincent, science teacher at Woodstock Elementary School, for a trip to Boston for 60 5th and 6th graders at Woodstock was approved. The trip will be by District bus, and will include visits to the New England Aquarium, Prudential Center and the Boston Museum of Science.

Authority was granted for the Rumford Camp of The Gideons to place New Testaments in the fifth grades of the District.

Adjournment overtook the meeting before resolution of the final agenda item, a request for another teacher aide at the R. C. Foster School, Newry, could be achieved. It is expected that a decision on this matter will be made at the next regular meeting on Oct. 21.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

North Haven is like a color picture taken from a magazine. Every view along the way is better than the last one. Two weeks there among friends, who have captured some of life's greatest values, were most enjoyable.

On the ferry looking out, the sea was a great flat floor, smooth and serene. The far horizon was shrouded with haze but there were evidences of activity; the scattered, colored buoys of lobster fishmen, the still forms of silent gulls floating, silent forms with long necks, the cormorants that are never absent, and here and there small boats on the surface of the bay. They brought to mind this line from "The Ancient Mariner", "as idle as a painted ship upon a painted ocean."

We watched for sea-marks so familiar: the breakwater out from Rockland, the stone monument off Crabtree Point, the Silent Fiddler, the bell buoys, and a lighthouse. These things, so tall, so solitary—how can they stand in a rage of wind and sea.

Then quiet waters of a harbor and a cluster of houses, the wharf, ferry at anchor, countless boats, among which my NYMPH was tied. How natural it all looked!

We had days of fog, days of rain, days of dazzling sun, but in all but two we at some time had our beach fire and a meal. No claims this year because of Red tide; very noticeable in some places.

The fog, if you are caught in it, you move with faith and fear. It comes in many guises. It looks like doom. It is opaque and relentless. You see it coming at you and it hits with a rush of cold darkness. Even on shore you feel the menace of it.

One of the dazzling, sunny, quiet days, my sister, her husband, and I went in NYMPH to the White Islands and to Hurricane where "Outward Bound" boys and girls have their boats and tiny village. On this island we went ashore briefly to gather granite "baseballs." To round and smooth these rocks were; pounded and rolled by the sea for centuries against the shore, where great granite ledges slope in an easy incline to the water's edge. Wooded ridges stood in successive tiers in a clear line against the blue sky. Buildings nestled here and there.

To my brother-in-law born on North Haven Island, a trip to the outer islands and around their shores seem always like a voyage of discovery. Perhaps a boy's world will always be there where he spent so many of his younger years. Scenes change but the islands and the markings themselves remain the same over the years. As a boy he learned to skulk with a single oar, perfecting the trick of it so he could propel a dory with careless ease. He learned knots, splices, caulking and boat making. He knows the rocks, coves, ledges, and bay islands and so travels them with confidence. Thus he guided NYMPH among the islands and one day in East Bay where in one direction nothing but mile after mile of sea stretched out to the sky.

Beaching one afternoon at the gentlest time of day, there was a growing gold and pink along the west which spoke of sunset. Off shore the loons, white breasts conspicuous above the water, gave their lonely call time after time. They are inquisitive birds as quietly they swim and warily they look. Between the tide-marks along the shore, sandpipers darted, running on twinkling legs, tipping and bobbing at every pause.

We walked and explored miles of beaches, rough and juted with ledges as well as smooth ones.

Alone one morning, I walked up the hill overlooking the Bay, my favorite spot on the island. Birds were everywhere; feeding on seeds and berries. There were white throated sparrows, other kinds, robins, warblers, and towhees. They rose from the grasses beneath my feet and filled the trees—migrating. Above the water gulls were circling and coasting, ravens harshly called from near by, and I sat watching and listening for some time before I returned for breakfast. Our last day we experienced heavy rain and strong wind.

I donned an old oilskin hat to match, and boots, all belonging to my brother-in-law, and crossed a small field to see the breakers. The rain ceased for a time and the excitement of a beachcomber was mine. I stood alone near a high point that juts into the sea. There the waves could be watched as they broke. Coming at me from the sea were ceaseless assaults. Waves smashed against the ledges, boiled white and spouted up over the brown sea weed. The waves on the beach rolled, crested, and swept out of the sea and up the shore. As I walked about, I met from time to time masses of sea-foam, as light as thistledown.

rolling along the sand. Overhead sea birds whirled. Fog horns groaned, and just one elder duck was swimming off the point as I turned and went back across the field.

The Monday morning boat was filled with those having reservations so we had to wait until noon to return. Our ferry chugged toward Rockland through rough seas and our car was splashed repeatedly with spray.

It's "seasy" to understand why we go there again and again if you read this poem by the Rev. H. F. Huse.

"I love thy tiny inlets, creek and bay,
Where tides roll in and out each day,
Thy fields and farms, thy spruce and shore,
Delight me daily more and
and more."

Monday after spending August and September at the Young-Cooper camp in Shadowland.

Most people have their produce gathered from their gardens after the freeze. Now it will warm up again, Sunday was a beautiful day.

No one has called in any news, so guess everyone is busy with the profession so nothing to report.

I had the cast off my foot Monday at Stephens Memorial Hospital. Now I am limping around but I can get to some of the work which needs to be done. I have received cards from several Granges. The latest was from Aziscoos Grange. I appreciate everyone's thoughtfulness. They have been so kind to us. I hope I can repay their kindness to me in some way as time goes on.

Mrs. Esther Davis has been staying with Bernice Davis during the day while her daughters are working. Bernice Davis is feeling better and gaining at this writing.

Mrs. Guyson Davis took care of her grandchildren this week end. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Tibbetts celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary this week end. They attended the concert at Oxford Hills High School.

This is no time for any red-blooded American to tune out—turn off and just plain quit!

Back to The Word of God now—"Be on your guard; stand firm in the faith; be men of courage; be strong." I Corinthians 16:13. Never give up, come what may! Keep awake—stay alert—be watchful—this is no time to quit—no time to take a vacation from the Lord's work! Grow up—speak up—and stand up for what is right! No time to quit!

STAGGER REGISTRATION OF MOTOR VEHICLES EXPLAINED

Through the efforts of State Representative J. Jay Willard, Republican, candidate for re-election in Maine Legislative District 63, the following explanation of the Staggered Registration of motor vehicles has been made available from the Maine Secretary of State's office.

Commencing with the 1975 registration year all passenger cars that were registered in Maine in 1974 will be re-registered under a stagger system with the expiration date of the registration determined by the last number or the last letter of the registrant's plate number.

The purpose of switching to this stagger system is to do away with the annual registration rush that

1975 REGISTRATION FEES FOR PASSENGER CARS ONLY
Last Number or Last Letter	Will Cost & Will Expire
0	$12.50 Oct. 31, 1975
1	$13.75 Nov. 30, 1975
2	$15.00 Dec. 31, 1975
3	$16.25 Jan. 31, 1976
4	$17.50 Feb. 28, 1976
5 or 6	$18.75 Mar. 31, 1976
7	$20.00 Apr. 30, 1976
8	$21.25 May 31, 1976
9	$22.50 June 30, 1976

The general rule here is that the larger the period of validity of a registration, the greater the fee.

Excise tax in conjunction with 1975 registration of passenger cars is also affected by the stagger system in that a registrant must pay excise tax for the number of months his registration will be valid. For example, a registrant with a plate number ending in "9", must pay excise tax for 16 months. In this case the mill rate will be applied so that the registrant will pay 12 months of the mill rate applicable to the age of his vehicle and the other four months excise at the next lower mill rate. In this regard, the Maine Municipal Association has prepared appropriate rate books and instructions for excise tax collectors.

This year, as in past years, the half rate entitlement began on Sept. 1. However, in 1975 the excise tax and registration fee half rate entitlement for passenger cars will apply during the last four months of a person's registration year regardless of what calendar months are involved and will apply only in those cases where a transfer of registration from one car to another by the same person takes place. In cases involving new has always occurred in January and February and by so doing provide better service to the public.

In addition to the significance of the last number/letter of a registrant's plate number there are three basic points that are vital to an understanding of how the system will work. First, all 1974 registrations for all types of vehicles will expire, as in past years, on Feb. 28 of next year, 1975. Secondly, the stagger registration will apply to passenger cars, including station wagons, only. Thirdly, all other types of vehicles, i. e., trucks, trailers, motorcycles and tractors will remain on the same registration cycle as they now are on and will expire annually on the last day of February.

The 1975 registration fee and the expiration schedule is as follows:

1975 REGISTRATION FEES FOR PASSENGER CARS ONLY
Last Number or Last Letter	Will Cost & Will Expire
0	$12.50 Oct. 31, 1975
1	$13.75 Nov. 30, 1975
2	$15.00 Dec. 31, 1975
3	$16.25 Jan. 31, 1976
4	$17.50 Feb. 28, 1976
5 or 6	$18.75 Mar. 31, 1976
7	$20.00 Apr. 30, 1976
8	$21.25 May 31, 1976
9	$22.50 June 30, 1976

registrations full excise tax and full registration fees must be paid, however, the new registration will remain valid for one full year from the month it is issued.

As with passenger cars, commencing in 1975, the half rate on excise and registration fee will be in effect during the last four months of the registration year, which means that starting in 1975, the half rate on all vehicles except passenger cars will begin on Nov. 1 annually instead of on Sept. 1 annually.

There are two features of the new system that will result in questions and some resentment by the public. First an examination of the fee schedule for passenger cars, reveals that registrants are actually paying $2.50 more to register in 1975. This is best illustrated by the $17.50 a person with a last digit of 4 must pay for registration that will expire on Feb. 28, 1976. The increase results from doing away with the two month "grace period" or free registration that motorists have enjoyed. In past years, registrations technically expired that last day of the calendar year, however, a person could continue to drive without penalty on those plates until the last day of February. The stagger registration fee schedule was based on the Dec. 31 expiration date rather than on the end of grace date of Feb. 28.

Also the feature whereby the half rate privilege for trucks (everything but passenger cars) will move from Sept. 1 to Nov. 1 commencing in 1975 will cause some hate and resentment and discontent among the farmers who in the past have waited till Sept. 1 to register or booster their trucks to market crops, especially potatoes.

The 1975 registration year must be viewed as a year of implementing a system that will thereafter be pleasant and simple. For all new registrations in 1975 and all re-registrations after the stagger has been implemented will be good for one full year and will give registrants their money's worth for their registration dollar.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION at Telstar takes to the cut-of-doors with a week end camping trip to Evans Notch. In the above photo a group of students and their instructors prepare an evening meal following an afternoon climb to the summit of Caribou Mountain.

FIELD HOCKEY ACTION at Telstar over the week end found 13 area schools gathered in Bethel to compete and allow prospective officials to be rated. The above action found the host team Telstar facing Cony High of Augusta as the Rebels' Nancy Brown drives Xmas Gift Shop, and the order of popples from Togos.

The group was asked to help toward a Winter Carnival, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

The Oxford County Council will meet at Buckfield, Oct. 15, with the John DeLong Post and Unit #58 as host, 8 p. m.

The President thanks each and all who helped in any way, places, members' help at the Booth, at the ball toward the Cony goal. The game ended in a 1-1 tie.

HEAD START NEWS

Tuesday we had our first parent coffee. A first to say the least! Eleven mothers met at the center. They were Linda Leon, Carol York, Darlene Morin, Mary Tyler, Jennice Cole, Yvette Currier, Candy Howard, Ann Patten, Queda Billings, Edleen Fraser and Gemma Morrill. The first thing we discovered was that plastic spoons will curl into funny shapes when boiling water is poured on them!

Then we got down to business. We enjoyed coffee and muffins, the latter made by Linda LaFle. The mothers decided to have a "ghost" top party and use the proceeds for toys for the center. Also, Edleen Fraser brought in a quilt she had recently finished and after Christmas, we'll be making squares and having a quilt to raffle.

The main event of the day was lunch. Two large pots had been simmering on the stove. When the children had washed for lunch, they found spaghetti and meatballs, tossed salad, bread and butter, and milk, awaiting them. An extra table was set up and the mothers joined their children for lunch. All in all it was a very fun day! The parent coffee is an important part of the Head Start program, and you'll be hearing about a lot more!

The physicals will be finished this week; dental appointments to start in early November.

Donations have been: Apples, Mary Tyler and Beverly Sanford; home made jelly from Mrs. Mary Cole; bag of candy from Queda Billings; cereal from Jennice Cole; coloring books, games and books from Helvi Cary; covers for the children's toothbrushes from Mary Tyler; 1 bushel of apples from Lyon's Orchard, and a box of toys from Virginia Hutchins.

Volunteers have been Linda Haegle, Norman Stone, Carol York and Linda Leon.

RECEIVES NAVY ACADEMY AWARD

Richard S. Libby, son of Mrs. Roberta Heath Bennett (a former resident of Bethel while attending Gould Academy in the 1950's) of Lovell, received "The Mr. and Mrs. Wilson B. McCandless Memorial Honor Scholar Award" at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland. Prior to the presentation of awards, President Gerald Ford, while serving as Vice President of the United States, addressed the brigade of midshipmen. The scholar award was created by the McCandless Foundation, Inc., through the generosity of Wilson B. McCandless, a distinguished graduate of the class of 1922.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Bennett attended the ceremony which was held during parents week end at the Naval Academy. Also attending were Lori Libby and Lisa Libby, Richard's sisters from Lovell, and Terry Kheil of Denmark, Maine.

Richard graduated from Fryburg Academy where he had good class standing, lettered in football, played baseball, ran cross country and was captain of the wrestling team. He was also active in the student council as a president and a treasurer.

After graduation, he attended Hargrave Military Academy enabling Richard to attain entrance to the Naval Academy. Because of his demonstrated ability, he has been chosen for the Naval Academy wrestling team. He has successfully begun his freshman year with these honors.

The nominating committee reported that they have most of the officers for next year.

The Bible Study was conducted by Annie Gordon.

The next meeting will be at Virginia Keniston's, Nov. 16.

COLE FAMILY ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Cole Family Association was held at 10 a. m., Saturday, Oct. 5, 1974, at 477 Congress Street, Portland, Maine. The meeting was open to members and interested Cole descendants including variant spelling such as Coal, Coles, Colles, Coule, Cowles, Kool, and Cool.

A special meeting has been set for 2 p. m., Sunday, Oct. 13, 1974, at the Union Church, Route 25, Locke Mills, Maine, for the purpose of organizing the compilation of genealogical data about Cole families. Any Cole descendant unable to attend this important meeting is urged to send a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Association's president, Mrs. George B. Freeman, Rt. Salem Road, Murfreesboro, Tennessee 37130.

Through Oct. 19, Mrs. Freeman may be reached at 207-633-2767 and will receive any mail addressed to her or Cole, Boothbay Harbor, Maine 04538.

The Cole Family Association, Inc., was organized in 1972 to coordinate the efforts of those who are interested in Cole genealogy and promote fellowship among all Cole descendants. The Association is collecting, preserving, and distributing information about Coles and their families in all parts of the United States and about numerous different lines. It is setting up a clearing house and cross index file where Cole descendants may deposit information and obtain data about their ancestry. The Association publishes a quarterly newsletter, Cole Chronicles, for its members. Annual dues are $3 for an individual or $5 for a family.

There were several Cole families in New England prior to 1650. One of these families removed to Long Island, New York, and at least one descendant of a different family settled in southwestern Virginia before the Revolutionary War. Just how these early Cole families from England may have been related is not clear, although some relationships are known.

The Colonial Cole families included: James, Plymouth, Mass.; brothers Job, Daniel, and John, first of Plymouth, later of Duxbury and Eastham, Mass.; Samuel, Boston, Mass.; Isaac, Boston and Charlestown, Mass.; Rice or Ryse, Charlestown, Mass.; Thomas, Salem, Mass.; James, Hartford, Conn.; Henry, Hartford and Middletown, Conn.; Robert, Plymouth and Duxbury, Mass.; removed to Providence, R. I., children went to Oyster Bay, Long Island, N. Y., after his death; John, Farmington and Hatfield, Conn.

Some of these early Coles changed the spelling of their name to: Coles, Colles, Coule, and Cowles.

Today, the descendants are known to be numerous and living in all the states. Many are several generations removed from the Cole surname and may not even realize they are Cole descendants.

CO-OP CORNER

Pamela Coolidge

Lynne Swasey is the Co-Op student featured in the Corner this week. She is a senior at Telstar Regional High School.

Lynne is employed by Andover Wood Products in a clerical position. On the job activities include typing letters and invoices, posting, filing, and paying the loggers that bring in logs for the mill. The most challenging aspect of her work, she believes, is performing with speed and accuracy. She enjoys working with her supervisor, Cam Harrington, and her fellow workers.

Since the beginning of her employment, Lynne has learned the responsibilities involved in a clerical position. She believes that Co-Op will help her decide if the clerical field is what she wants to pursue for a life time career. Lynne feels that the Cooperative Education Program is a good learning experience for all students involved because it gives them on the job experience. Recreational activities that she enjoys are ski-dooing, winter sports in general, and she would like to learn to ride a horse.

A resident of S. A. D. 44 for the past three years, Lynne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitten, Andover, and the wife of Barry E. Swasey, also of Andover.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Since school started, Student Council has been getting its members involved in various committees dealing with educational matters throughout MSAD #44. We are doing all we can to let everyone know we exist as representatives of the student body. The Council is represented on the School Board, the Educational Development Committee, the Open House committee, along with members who attend faculty and department head meetings.

An open house is being scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 29, for interested parents and citizens. Some very new and exciting ideas are being brought before the committee for this.

Another project that is underway is a Student-Teacher exchange with the faculty and members of the council. We did this last year and it seemed to work very well.

This year Telstar will be the host of the Western Maine Regional Student Council Convention to be held in November. Student Councils from western Maine get together to exchange ideas.

Telstar has been taped for High School Quiz. It will be broadcast on television on Friday, Oct. 18, at 7:30 on Channel 8. Hope you will watch us for the results!! — Elaine Cross.

WHAT'S A BALISTA?

"Romans beware!", was the cry as a yellow jeep was driven up to the football field. Once there Mr. Otero's Latin I class unloaded and prepared the Ballista. Now what the heck is a Ballista? Well, in short it is an ancient Roman weapon that shoots arrows.

When the Ballista was unloaded, its designer, Scott Wight, and assistant proceeded to "crank it up." Then an arrow was fitted into the slot, the string pulled back, and SWOOSH!! Then the arrow flew to a record setting mark of 54 yards.

When asked why he built such a thing, Scott replied, "For fun, and to show the class the kind of weapons the Romans used in warfare."

I must admit my brother Matt helped me to build it. The Ballista was my Latin I project. — Scott Wight.

HEALTH COUNCIL MEETS

solution for 24-hour emergency coverage. The Council is still trying to attract a full-time physician to the area for additional coverage, but daytime coverage at a Clinic might have to be arranged through Stephens Memorial Hospital. They would be willing to have office hours at a clinic in Bethel, until full-time professional coverage could be found. Some type of paraprofessionals, i. e. physician assistant, lab technician, family nurse practitioner, would need to be employed as full-time clinic staff.

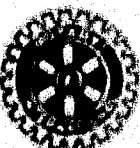

Those Council members present, voted unanimously to approve the Trustees proposal of the Health Clinic for Bethel, and to go ahead with the necessary steps to establish such a Clinic. It appears that there is much enthusiasm for such a project, and certainly a great need. Anyone interested in volunteering his or her services in getting the project off the ground are asked to call John Laban (West Bethel).

CAMPBELL SOUP LABELS

Students of Crescent Park and Ethel Bisbee schools will be starting a special collection drive aimed at obtaining needed audio-visual and physical education equipment. The program, "Labels for Education", is sponsored by the Campbell Soup Company and is offered only to elementary schools. Between now and Dec. 31, 1974 (note the extension of time) it is hoped to get enough Campbell Soup and Beans labels to get tape recorders, filmstrip projectors and physical education equipment selected by the individual buildings. Labels should be brought in to either CPS or EBS. Collection points in local stores are being arranged. Any Campbell's soup can label (Chunky Soup, regular, 26 oz. size or 50 oz. size) or Campbell's bean products counts in the drive. More than 110 pieces of equipment are being offered.

The drive is being sponsored by the Telstar Educators Association of MSAD #44. We would appreciate it if friends of the schools would save and send in the labels.

It was reported that the children's ward would be opened soon at the Rumford hospital, a project of the Auxiliary.

TO MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY

The October meeting of Mothers with Children will be held at the Community Room of the Bethel Savings Bank on Wednesday, Oct. 18 from 9-11 a. m. The general topics for discussion will be childbirth and breastfeeding and the meeting should be of special interest to expectant mothers in the area. Fay Corrin of the LaLeche League will be present, as will a representative of the Rumford Prepared Childbirth group.

In addition, Mrs. Emily Saunders, Legislative candidate from District 63, will be present and will offer information of interest to food shoppers on unit pricing and store coding.

The new location and the range of topics for discussion indicate the expanded focus of Mothers with Children, and it is hoped that this will be reflected in a good turnout of mothers and children. Questions? Call Nancy Davis, 824-2355.
